Chiefs’ Report:

Deputy Chief Blondell stated that his report was given to all trustees.

D/C Blondell discussed the training report and the meeting held with Schiller Park who just went through ISO, the District reporting will mirror how Schiller Park did theirs, which is what ISO expects. Target Solutions is going better and the firemen are doing a great job recording training and outside training hours as well.

Fire Prevention is moving forward. We are going to use a program that will save the district $500 annually. We will need to work on the data base which will take some time. We are on pace for the inspections that need to be completed for the year. Leigh Unger is doing a great job.

Trustee Rybak asked how often businesses are inspected. D/C Blondell replied that they need to be done every 3 years, but the District does it every year.

D/C Blondell explained that we need to develop a way to enforce the violations. Discussion on Intergovernmental Agreements, Court Keys, charging for inspections and penalties. Also discussed inspecting large residential family buildings.
Enclosed in Trustee packet was a thank you letter from Schiller Park Fire Department for the District assisting with a fire recently. D/C Blondell was on the scene and explained in more detail, stated how proud he was of our firemen.

Motion by Trustee Skyba seconded by Trustee Martell to approve the Chief’s report for April 2018.

President’s Report: Trustee Martell stated that we have picked a new Trustee to fill the vacancy; we now need to work to get a commissioner. Trustee Martell stated they need to schedule a Finance Committee meeting. We need to get an Intergovernmental Agreement with the Villages to charge fees in the new fiscal year, possibly raise ambulance fees to receive the maximum revenue, Trustee Rybak is working on a new project and we need to get a line of credit. We will need to talk to Byline Bank and Belmont for the line of credit. MB was bought out by 5/3.

Committee Reports:

Finance & Information Technology Committee- Trustee Martell stated they had a meeting (Trustee Romano was unable to attend). They reviewed the budget draft, proposal for the external auditor, Village of Rosemont automatic aid agreement needs an impact assessment so we will know the time and call volume expected. We will also be working on building inspection charges, Trustee Rybak’s project, and firms for IT. Hope to meet next week.

Building and Equipment Committee- Trustee Martell stated they will need to meet regarding capital improvements. Stated that the bay doors look nice.

Policy Committee- Trustee Kolaski stated there is nothing at this time.

Strategic Planning Committee- Trustee Martell states we need to have a meeting, maybe in June.

Human Capital Committee- Trustee Skyba stated there is nothing at this time.

Community Relations Committee-Trustee Avino could not be here but wanted to congratulate Trustee Rybak. There is a draft newsletter completed and discussing a safety sign campaign.

Fire Commissioner & Pension Board Governance & Oversight Committee- Trustee Cichon stated everything is moving along, Jeff Peistrup was re-elected as active firefighter trustee and Pension Board President. Lauterbach and Amen had their agreement extended.
Attorney Report: Attorney Flaherty welcomed Trustee Rybak, explained that she needs to do Open Meeting Act training and send her certificate to the District office within 60 days. HB4413 passed the House and is sitting in the Senate. This bill will make Pension Board meetings be televised live, if passed. The tax freeze bill will not likely happen. Trustee Martell stated that candidate JB Pritzker is saying he will push for a 10 year freeze. Discussion on budget and appropriations.
